

HOLY FAMILY

HOLY ROSARY MISSION

FATHER INNOCENT SUBIZA, PASTOR

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Peter Kreeft, in The Man Who Left His Mark, asks these questions: What is the historical significance of all the divisions and fragmentations that have emerged in the modern world? In the modern households and families? And even in the forces of evil - Materialism vs. “New Age” spiritualism, collectivism vs. individualism, etc.?

The answer is in today’s Gospel from Mark: “If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand but is coming to an end.”

Evil is necessarily divisive and self-destructive. Why do we worry that the gates of Hell will prevail? We are seeing them fall apart.

WHAT DO WE DO ABOUT EVIL?

When we see ourselves confronted with a world that sometimes seems to be profoundly disturbed, we cannot simply fold our arms and shrug like a person overwhelmed by a situation about which he can do nothing. We do not have to take part in the making of great decisions, which perhaps are not our concern anyway, but we do have to play our part in those matters that God has put within our reach, so as to give them a Christian orientation.

Our blessed mother, Mary, who was preserved immune from all stain of the guilt of original sin from the first moment of her immaculate conception by a singular grace and privilege of God, will teach us to go to the root of the evil that besets us. Above all she will strengthen us in our friendship with God, whatever the situation in which we find ourselves.

Eucharistic Pilgrimage in Incline Village

My husband and I were privileged to attend the recent visit of Jesus on the throne of his Monstrance at St. Francis of Assisi in Incline Village during the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage from the West Coast to Indiana. Bishop Soto travelled by small boat from South Lake Tahoe to a private dock in Incline, and it was a very rough ride with large waves. Jesus was transferred to the Diocese of Reno to the Parish Priest and he proceeded with the pilgrims up a hill to arrive at the church. The pilgrims greeted Jesus with votive candles, singing, and shouts of "Viva Cristo Rey". There was a holy hour with group prayer and singing - it was so beautiful and touching. A very special experience for all!

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

June is traditionally a month for weddings. So, the question arises “Why does a man refer to his wife as his “better half”?

The expression comes from an ancient Middle Eastern legend. A Bedouin man had been sentenced to death, so his wife pleaded with the tribal leader that because they were married, she and her husband had become one, and that to punish one half of the union would also punish the other half who was innocent. The court agreed, and the man’s life was saved by his “better half.”
