“Take; this is my body”

- Mark 14:22

The presence of Christ in the Eucharist is real, true, and substantial.

“Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love.” (St. John Paul II)

“It is called: Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God.” (CCC 1328)

Eucharist, “makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior.”

- United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Year of the Eucharist Revival

We want food to delight, and we want it to nourish not one or the other.... The Eucharist doesn't just fortify, it also delights...With each reception of Holy Communion Christ incorporates us more perfectly into his body so that his joy may be in us and our joy may be complete. ...he prepares for us a food the angels themselves wish to consume. In his Body, he gives us spiritual delight and supernatural nourishment beyond what eye has seen or ear has heard.

- Father Gregory Pine, O.P. in Magnificat

That phrase “food the angels themselves wish to consume” made me realize that angels cannot receive Holy Communion because they have no human body. What a gift for us human beings!

Happy Father's Day

Standing in a crowded checkout line with his dad, a young son was eyeing the candy display. When he asked for the biggest lollipop on the shelf, his father told him, "No, that sucker's too big for you.

To that, the youngster responded hopefully, "Dad, can I have it when my mouth's a big as yours?"

Blessed Carlo Acutis: Cyber Apostle of the Holy Eucharist Continued...

I was curious to find out how many Eucharistic Miracles Carlo researched, so I went to the website: www.miracolieucaristic.org. It was fascinating!

There were 100 documentations: Italy with 32, Spain with 19, one in Columbia, Croatia, Mexico, Switzerland, Martinique, and Reunion Island.

The earliest one given was 1203 in Bruges, Belgium.

Since last Friday was the Feast of the Sacred Heart, I've included the miracle in Betania, Venezuela, on December 8, 1991 because there the celebrant saw the Host bleeding.

Eucharistic Miracle of Betania

On December 8 of 1991, Father Otty Ossa Aristizábal was celebrating Mass in the chapel of the Shrine of Betania in Cúa and during the consecration, saw the Host bleeding. "After having consumed one of the large pieces of the large Host which I had divided into 4 parts, I returned them to the paten. A little later I looked down towards the paten and I could not believe what I saw: one of the pieces of the Host that I divided was showing a red spot and from it a red substance began to emanate, similar to the manner in which blood escapes from a wound. After Mass, I took the Host and preserved it safely in the sacristy of the Shrine. The next day, at 6 in the morning, I went to see the Host and verified that some blood continued to flow and hadn't begun to dry. Still today, the blood appears as fresh."

The Tabernacle where the relics of the Host from which blood flowed were kept

The miraculous Host is preserved in the city of Los Teques, at the convent of the Augustinian Recollects Nuns of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, where it is permanently exposed for the adoration of the faithful and it is visited every year by numerous pilgrims coming also from abroad. Many prodigious events have taken place, connected to the Host of the Miracle, among the one which stands out that occurred to a young American who filmed the miraculous Host pulsating like a heart, while it was exposed to the faithful. (1998)
