12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion:

my persecutors will stumble, they will not prevail.”

Jeremiah 20:11

Jeremiah sensed the “terror on every side,” former friends were intent on taking “vengeance on him.” Jesus commands, “Fear no one; do not be afraid of those who kill the body.” But how is it possible to live fearlessly? St. John tells us that perfect love casts out fear, and the love that Christ offers is so perfect and total and that by embracing the “gracious gift of Jesus Christ,” we can live unafraid. This Year of Eucharist Revival is meant to help us live unafraid.

Year of the Eucharist Revival

Mother Teresa carried the Gospel in her hand without a book. Sometimes when asked to describe the Gospel message, she would take her listener’s hand and pinch each finger saying, “You. Did. It. To Me.” This five-finger gospel, (Matt. 25-40) summed up for Mother Teresa the truth about the body of Christ and showed her the way to love the God she could not see in the people she could see.

Living in Fear Led to the Invention of the Panic Button

The first panic buttons were installed in bombers during the WWII. If his plane was hit by enemy fire, a pilot could push a button that set off an alarm throughout the aircraft. The crew responded with a drill, which, in severe cases and if a crash was imminent, could lead to the entire crew bailing out. When too many chose to parachute when hearing the alarm even though the situation wasn't critical, pilots were advised to think twice before "pushing the panic button." - Now You know Big Book of Answers

Eucharistic Miracle of Offida, Italy, 1273-1280

Oil jar where the miracle took place, Offida

Relic of the linen with Blood spots where Richiarella enfolded the miraculous Host

In 1273 in the town of Lanciano, a woman named Richiarella went to a witch and asked her how she could recover the affection of her husband, Giacomo Stasio. Following the witch's advice, she went to Communion to obtain a consecrated Host. She returned home and put the Host on the fire in an earthenware jar with the intention of turning the Blessed Sacrament into powder to put into her husband's food. The Particles, however, were transformed into living Flesh. Richiarella, horrified by these events, wrapped the jar and the Bloodied Host in a linen handkerchief that she then buried under the manure in her husband's stable. Strange events began to take place inside the stable: every time Giacomo's donkey entered, it would genuflect toward the place where the miraculous Host was buried, and Giacomo began to think that his wife had put a spell on the beast.

A cross-shaped reliquary was made to contain the Host. The reliquaries of the jar and the Blood-stained linen with the cross containing the miraculous Host are exposed in the Church of St. Augustine in Offida. Richiareta's house was transformed into a small chapel. In 1973, the seventh centenary of the miracle was celebrated, and every year on May 3rd, the citizens of Offida celebrate the anniversary of the miracle.

Where is the Eucharist Mentioned in the Bible?

The Lord Jesus, on the night before he suffered on the cross, shared one last meal with his disciples. During this meal our Savior instituted the sacrament of his Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the ages and to entrust to the Church a memorial of his death and resurrection. The Institution of the Eucharist is written down in the four Gospels below:

- Matthew 26:26-30
- Mark 14:22-26
- Luke 22:14-20
- John 6:22-59 (The Bread of Life Discourse)
