

HOLY FAMILY

HOLY ROSARY MISSION

FATHER INNOCENT SUBIZA, PASTOR

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we are faced with several “violent squalls”—especially morally (abortion and sex-changing, gun violence, etc.). I can sympathize with the apostles and think “Lord, do you not care that we are perishing?” The Lord asks me, too, “Why are you terrified?” Honestly, it is because I want an immediate answer (cure); one I don’t have to work for.

In times of trial when Jesus delays in hearing my prayer, it is because He wants to try me, to increase my faith and form me by making me practice patience.

“Do you not yet have faith?” I have to answer, “Not enough, Lord.”

Calmness in the Face of Difficulties

Sometimes the storm arises around us or within us. The waves are breaking over us: personal weaknesses, professional or financial difficulties that are beyond our management, illness, problems with children or parents, the menace of calumny, a hostile environment, slander ...

But if you live in the presence of God, high above the deafening storm, the sun will always be shining on you; and deep below the roaring and destructive waves, peace and calm will reign in your soul.

- St. J. Escriva

God will never abandon us.

~Fernandez, Francis. In Conversation with God

The Eucharist describes the indescribable, expresses the inexpressible: that God Who is infinite, loves us infinitely. All that Jesus has and is, He gives us in the Eucharist.

In today's Gospel, "Jesus was asleep in the stern..." So, why are the sides of a boat called "starboard" and "port"?

In the primitive days of navigation, the helmsman stood at the stern of the ship, controlling the vessel's direction by hand with a rudder, which was on the right side and called a steer board, or, as the Anglo-Saxons called it, a "starboard." The left side of the ship is called "port" because with the steering mechanism on the right it was the only side that could be brought to rest against a harbor or port.

Eucharistic Miracle of Kranenburg

*In the Eucharistic miracle of Kranenburg, Germany in 1280, A sacred Host was thrown near a tree by a shepherd who was not able to swallow the Holy Eucharist because of an illness. Later, the tree was cut in half and a perfectly carved crucifix fell to the ground. On the place where the crucifix was found, a church was built. That church is still there to this day and numerous pilgrims come to visit it.
