HOLY ROSARY MISSION

FATHER INNOCENT SUBIZA, PASTOR

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel answers the question: What is the most important question to ask a preacher or evangelist? "And many who heard him were astonished, saying, 'Where did this man get all this?' What is the wisdom given to him?" As Peter Kreeft points out, successful theology is like successful politics: It's not what you know, it's Whom you know.

"He [Jesus] was amazed at their lack of faith.": What is "faith"? Faith is not just believing that God exists. Faith is that force which comes from on high and opens our mind to God's way of looking at things."

~Father Bernard Bro, O.P. in Magnificat

When Love Meets Sin

When love meets sin, it becomes mercy and forgiveness and reconciliation: not God reconciling himself to us, to our sin, but us reconciling ourselves to God, by repentance and confession. Our sin is probably at least ten times as big and as bad as we think it is, but God's mercy is at least ten trillion times as big and as good as we can imagine. But mercy and forgiveness is a gift, and a gift has to be not only freely given—which God's grace always is—but also freely accepted. That's why there is one unforgivable sin: not repenting, not confessing, not asking for forgiveness.

God offers us a new heart; God offers us heart transplant surgery, but that's good news only to those who know they have heart disease. If you don't believe God's x-ray, God's diagnosis, you won't ask God for his free operation. God is the great heart surgeon, and the prophets are his x-ray technicians.

The Eucharistic Miracle of Weiten-Raxendorf

In the Eucharistic Miracle of Weiten-Raxendorf, Austria in 1411, there were a number of thefts of consecrated Hosts, so Church authorities began keeping the Hosts in the sacristy. Despite these precautions, a thief succeeded in stealing a consecrated Host from the parish church in Weiten. The Host slipped unnoticed to the ground during his journey.

A few days later, a Mrs. Scheck from Mannersdorf passed by the spot and saw the Host encircled in a strong light. In great wonder, she picked up the Holy Eucharist and noticed that the consecrated Host was broken in two Parts but remained joined together by threads of Bleeding Flesh. Greatly moved and at her own expense, in thanksgiving, she built a small chapel on the spot. As news of the miracle spread, many pilgrims came to the place. Later, it was necessary to build a bigger church to honor the precious reliquary in order to contain the great crowds that came every year on pilgrimage.
