“Who do you say that I Am?”

The apostles have had ample opportunity to experience the rays of Jesus’ inmost being shining upon their persons like the sun, in contrast to the multitude that have merely heard rumors about him or have projected their own expectations onto this itinerant rabbi. Therefore, Jesus’ question to the disciples is not so much an official examination at the end of a period of scholastic training as it is a hopeful query by a Lover who needs to know to what extent he is known, understood, and accepted in his deepest identity by those he loves, those to whom he has been at pains to manifest himself.

- Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis in Magnificat

LOVE FOR THE POPE

By changing his name Our Lord wished to underline the new mission his Apostle Simon has been given: that of being the firm foundation of the new edifice of the Church.

From the very beginnings of Christianity the faithful have venerated the Pope. The Prince of the Apostles is everywhere mentioned before the others, and makes frequent use of his special primacy and authority over the rest.

These great spiritual powers are given to Peter for the good of the Church, and since the Church has to last until the end of time, these powers are handed down throughout history to those who take Peter’s place. The Church’s Magisterium has always stressed this point. The Roman Pontiff is the successor of Peter; united to him we are united to Christ. He is his Vicar here on earth, the one who takes his place.

Year of the Eucharist Revival

Could I pick Jesus out in the confusion of a dark room full of prophets—John the Baptist, Jeremiah, Elijah, or the other prophets? "Who do you say that I am?" Is Jesus present to me as the total person that He is?

Help me, Lord, to always know who YOU are.

Introduction to the Catechism Class

Next to the Bible the Catechism of the Catholic Church is essential for helping us grow in our knowledge and love of God and his Son, Jesus Christ. More than just a catalogue of sterile doctrines, the Catechism is, as St. John Paul II described it, a "symphony of the faith" - an organic synthesis of the essential contents of the Catholic faith.

The Eucharistic Miracle of Tixtla

In the miracle of Tixtla, Mexico, in 2006 the effusion of a reddish substance was noted from a consecrated Host during the Eucharistic Celebration at Tixtla, in the Diocese of Chilpancingo-Chilapa.

The scientific research conducted between October 2009 and October 2012 came to the following conclusions, presented on May 25, 2013:

1. The reddish substance analyzed corresponds to blood in which there are hemoglobin and DNA of human origin.
2. Two studies have shown that the substance originates from the interior, excluding the hypothesis that someone could have placed it from the exterior.
3. The blood type is AB, similar to the one found in the Host of Lanciano and in the Holy Shroud of Turin.
4. A microscopic analysis of magnification and penetration reveals the underlying internal layers reveal the presence of fresh blood.
5. They also found intact white blood cells, red blood cells, and active macrophages that engulf lipids. The tissue in question appears lacerated and with recovery mechanisms, exactly as occurs in a living tissue.
6. A further histopathological analysis determines the presence of protein structures in a state of deterioration, suggesting mesenchymal cells, very specialized cells, characterized by an elevated bio-physiological dynamism.
7. The studies reveal that the tissue found corresponds to the muscle of the heart (Myocardium). On account of the scientific results and the conclusions reached by the theological committee, last October 12 the Bishop Chilpancingo, his Eminence Alejo Zavala Castro, announced the following:
 - The event does not have a natural explanation.
 - It does not have paranormal origin.
 - It is not traceable to manipulation of the enemy.

Catholic Trivia

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells Peter: I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. The keys are on the papal flag. A unique feature of the papal flag is that is one of only two square country flags in the world (the other being the flag of Switzerland).

The Saints & The Eucharist

Since we have in Holy Communion the grace, the model, and the practice of all the virtues, all of them finding their exercise in this divine action, we shall profit more by Communion than by all other means of sanctification.

But to that end, Holy Communion must become the thought that dominates mind and heart.

- St. Peter Julian Eymard
