22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Get behind me, Satan!...”

When Peter tries to deny the Lord his Passion, the Lord rebukes him. Why? Because Christ’s death on the cross would fulfill the “good and pleasing and perfect” will of the Father for our salvation. In union with Jesus, we offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to God.

For many of us, our cross is the fear of the cross: a fear that is easily aroused and intensified by an undisciplined imagination. We need to discipline our imagination and learn to live each day as it comes, remembering that God’s will is infinitely wise, merciful, and tender, and that he unfailingly gives us the grace we need to accept his will, but only at the exact moment we need it.

- Father Bonaventure Perquin. O.P. in Magnificat

The Cross in Our Lives

The notion that the Cross, mortification, sacrifice, are in some way good and a means of salvation, will always strike a discordant note with people who, like Saint Peter on this occasion, view things from a worldly point of view.

Faith enables us to see and realize that without sacrifice the soul encounters no true love, no genuine joy, no lasting purification and no possession of God. The path to holiness passes through the Cross.

If we want to rise with Christ we have to accompany him on his journey to the Cross: we do this by accepting life’s trials and tribulations with calmness and serenity.

YEAR OF THE EUCHARIST REVIVAL

Since his death was the reason of his coming, the Lord now instituted for his apostles and posterity a memorial action of his redemption, which he promised when he said that he was the Bread of Life.
~Venerable Fulton J. Sheen

The Eucharistic Miracle of Dijon

In the miracle of Dijon, France in 1430, a lady purchased a monstrance which by mistake still contained the Sacred Host. The lady decided to use a knife to remove the Host, from which living Blood began to flow. The Blood dried immediately, leaving imprinted on the Host, the image of the Lord seated on a semicircular throne with some of the instruments of the Passion at His side. The Host remained intact for more than 350 years, until the Host was destroyed by the revolutionaries in 1794.

The Saints & The Eucharist

O God, to go and kiss the places you made holy during your life on earth - the stones of Gethsemane and Calvary, the ground along the Way of Sorrows, the waves of the sea of Galilee - but to prefer it to your tabernacle would be to desert Jesus living besides me, to leave him alone, going away alone to venerate the dead stones in places where he is no longer.

- St. Charles de Foucauld

LABOR DAY

Labor Day: A case of summer flew!
How true!

Remember when the first day of school was always the Tuesday after Labor Day? And, living in California, we then had Sept. 9th as a holiday for California Admission Day. [1850, 31st. state admitted to the Union.]

PARISH DIRECTORIES

Parish Directories are available in the vestibule with names on them, for those who submitted their information. For anyone still wanting to be in the directory, please send your information to the office, and an addendum page will be printed in the future.
