23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel reading converges on the theme of brotherly love in the community of believers whose source lies in the communion of the Trinity.

Brotherly love involves a sense of mutual responsibility. Our love must extend to those attitudes and actions that would prevent our neighbors from truly loving themselves and embracing their own call to holiness.

The greatest demand love makes on us is that we help one another into the Kingdom of God. Sometimes love requires us to speak a painful word of truth to awaken someone blinded by sin, recognizing we ourselves are also sinners.

The salvation of a soul is the greatest "victory" imaginable.

-Magnificat

BROTHERLY LOVE AND HUMILITY

There are two special virtues which the Son of God wished to teach us, and recommended us most earnestly to practice - humility and brotherly love; and it is precisely against these two virtues that the devil wages war the most.

Pride is always ready to take offense; and with this disposition to resent slights and injuries how is it possible to live in charity?*

Let us begin by acquiring that patient humility ourselves which we desire so much to see in others, remembering that it is not through the patience and humility of others that we shall be saved but by our own.

*The Eucharistic
Miracle of Santarém*

The miracle of Santarém, Portugal in 1266 together with that of Lanciano, is considered among the most important Eucharistic miracles.

A young woman overcome with jealousy for her husband, consulted a sorceress who told her to go to the church and steal a consecrated Host to use for a love potion. The woman stole the Host and hid the Holy Eucharist in a linen cloth that immediately became stained with Blood. Frightened by this, she ran home and opened the kerchief to see what had happened. To her amazement, she saw that the Blood was gushing from the Host. She stored the Host in a drawer in her bedroom and during the night the drawer began to emit brilliant rays of light which illuminated the room as if it was daytime.

Once returned to the church, the Host bled for three consecutive days and then was placed in a beautiful reliquary made of beeswax. In 1340 another miracle occurred. When the priest opened the tabernacle, he found the beeswax vase broken into many pieces: in its place was a crystal vase containing the Blood mixed with the wax.

Both relics are preserved to this day in the Church of St. Stephen. Some Popes granted plenary indulgences to this Eucharistic miracle: Pius IV, St. Pius V, Pius VI, and Pope Gregory XIV.

The Saints & The Eucharist

Anyone who has a special devotion to the Sacred Eucharist and who tries to repay Christ's infinite love for us with an eager and unselfish love of his one, will experience and fully understand - and this will bring great delight and benefit to his soul - just how precious is a life hidden with Christ in God and just how worthwhile it is to carry on a conversation with Christ, for there is nothing more consoling here on earth, nothing more efficacious for his progress along the paths of holiness.

- Pope St. Paul VI
