Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel has one unusual feature: Jesus gives one of the characters a name. (He is the only parable character upon whom Jesus bestows name.)

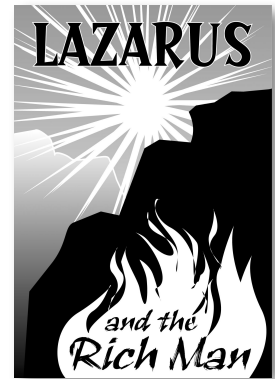

St. Augustine explains the significance of this oddity: "The rich man's name was thrown around [by men], but God kept quiet about it. The other's name was lost in silence, and God spoke it. Please do not be surprised. God just read out what was written in his book. . . . God who lives in heaven kept quiet about the rich man's name because he did not find it written in heaven. He spoke the poor man's name because he found it written there, indeed he gave instructions for it be written there."

By naming the one but not the other, Jesus lays out his theme from the outset: the goal of human life is not worldly prosperity, which always proves transient; rather, it is to find one's name written in God's book - in other words, to attain everlasting happiness in heaven.

-Magnificat

Our life on earth is a testing-ground for our generosity. The Lord reminds us: It is better to give than to receive. Paradoxically, one gets more from giving than from receiving: what one gets is Heaven. If we are generous, we will come to discover that other people are really children of God who need us. We will then be happy on this earth and also for eternity. Charity itself is the realization of the Kingdom of God. It is one commodity of which there can never be an excess. We have to be alert for the Lazarus in our home, in our office or place of work ...

~ Fernandez, Francis - In Conversation with God

Mission Statement

In Other Words

Theodore Roosevelt summarized today's Gospel quite nicely when he wrote: "We have got but one life here. It pays, no matter what comes after it, to try and do things, to accomplish things in this life, and not merely to have a soft and pleasant time."

Parish Finance Council - New Member Needed from Holy Rosary

We are seeking a qualified member from Holy Rosary to serve on our Council. Interested parishioners should contact either Fr. Innocent or Jeri Nelson.

The Parish Finance Council functions as a consultative body to the pastor. It consists of selected professionals to advise the pastor in these areas:

1. Preparation of the annual operating budget
2. Long-term financial planning
3. Annual parish financial report, which is submitted to the Diocesan Bishop
4. Annual and periodic financial reports to the faithful

The Council ensures that an adequate system of internal controls is in place to guide the parish in caring for and managing financial resources and temporal goods. The Parish Finance Council observes all policies and procedures outlined in the Parish Financial Management Handbook which can be found on the Diocese of Sacramento website, under the Offices tab, Finance.
