Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the question: “What are you looking for?”

How would you answer that, if Jesus were to appear to you? Would you be able to say, as Samuel did, “Here am I, Lord: I come to do your will!”

I am reading a book by Peter Kreeft, Jesus Shock, that is challenging me to reevaluate my personal relationship with Jesus.

HOLY PURITY

From the very beginning of his mission we see Christ seeking out his disciples and calling them to his service.

The Gospel speaks of that apparently chance meeting of Our Lord with those first three disciples (Peter, James and John), who were later on to become the foundation of his Church.

Following Christ, now as well as then, means giving him our heart, our whole being, our life itself. We can well understand that to follow Christ we need to live holy purity and purify our hearts. No one has ever taught about the dignity of the body in the way that the Church does.

Purity is the glory of the human body before God. It is the glory of God in the human body. (John Paul II, General Audience, 18 March 1981)

LORD JESUS, HELP ME TO BRING OTHERS TO
"COME AND SEE"

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Dear Lord,
open my eyes to see the ways you have moved
in my life in the past,
so that I may have faith
that you are moving in my life today,
and hope that you will continue to move in my life in the future, Amen.

~Lisa M. Henley, Beautiful Eucharist

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

In today's Gospel, Jesus says:

"You are Simon the son of John: you will be called Cephas" - which is translated Peter. Oh, how confusing names can be.

A friend who was visiting recently glanced at her watch and said,

"I'd better get going---I've got stew in the oven."

Hearing this, our 3-year-old son grabbed me in surprise and asked,

"Mommy, why does she have Stu in the oven?"

Stu (Stewart) is the friend's husband's name!

THE EUCHARISTIC MIRACLE OF WALLDÜRN

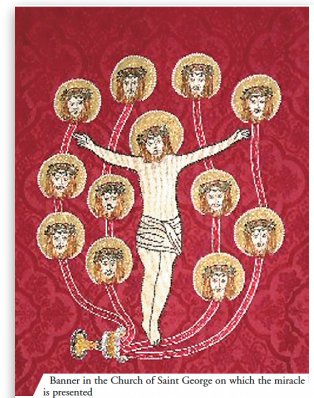

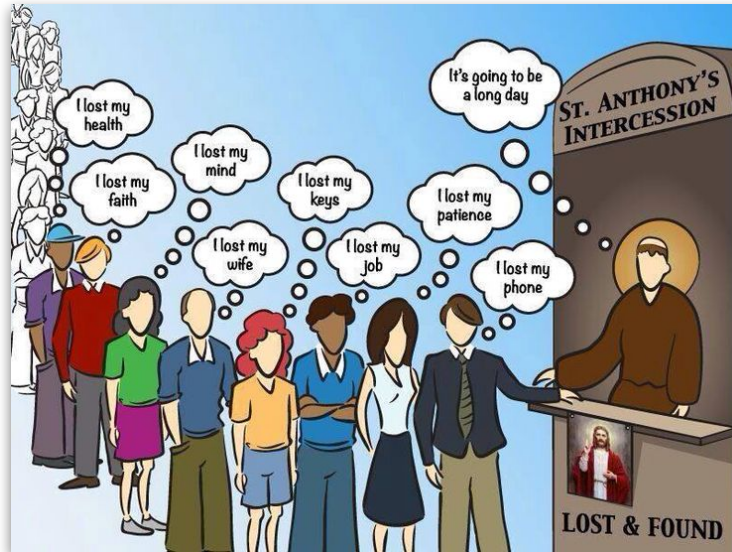

In the Eucharistic miracle of Walldürn, Germany, in 1330, It seems the priest, Heinrich Otta, was celebrating the Holy Mass when he accidentally overturned the chalice containing the Sacred Species; the consecrated Wine that had been transformed into the Blood of Christ. Immediately upon spilling, the Precious Blood formed on the corporal an image of the Crucified Christ, surrounded by eleven identical images of the Head of Christ crowned with thorns. The priest did not have the courage to reveal the miracle and for many years he kept the corporal hidden under the altar. It was only near the point of his death that he confessed, then told the story of the event and revealed the corporal.

From the beginning, the reliquary of the corporal has had much veneration, and many conversions and miraculous recoveries are attributed to this. Pope Eugene IV confirmed the miracle in 1445 and granted some indulgences. The miracle was famous across Europe and for centuries was depicted by many artists.

The actual basilica was constructed between 1698 and 1728 by Franz Lothar von Schonborn, the Archbishop of Mainz. In 1962, Pope John XXIII elevated the church to a minor basilica. Augustinian monks have protected the basilica since 1938.

The Saints & The Eucharist

To be alone with Jesus in adoration and intimate union with him is the greatest gift of love - the tender love of our Father in Heaven.

The fruit of our daily adoration is that our love for Jesus is more intimate, our love for each other is more understanding, our love for the poor is more compassionate, and we have doubled the number of vocations. So let us be all for Jesus through Mary.

~ St. Teresa of Calcutta
