Love of God and neighbor should form the framework of our lives and inspire all our actions.

God's love for us is infinite. We are to place God at the center of our lives and love God with our whole being. Love of God is expressed in the care and concern we show for others, especially those in need. We show our love for our neighbor through our deeds, even through the smallest of actions done out of love.

~ Nada Mazzei, Living with Christ

The new law of Christ is an interior law, the "law of grace." It is more demanding than the old law. It requires us to sacrifice ourselves so that Christ may animate everything that we do, so that he [Christ] may quite truly be our life.

~Dr. Matthew Miner, Magnificat

Year of the Eucharist Revival

It is our very sweet duty to honor and adore in the blessed Host which our eyes see, the Incarnate Word whom they cannot see, and who, without leaving heaven, is made present before us.

~Pope St. Paul VI

*The Fifteen Promises of Mary to Christians Who Recite the Rosary

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the rosary.
3. The rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. It will cause virtue and good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the rosary, shall not perish.
6. Whoever shall recite the rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just he shall remain in the grace of God, and become worthy of eternal life
7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.

- The 4th Sorrow: Mary meets Jesus on way to Calvary

The Eucharistic Miracle of Montserrat

In the Eucharistic miracle of Montserrat, Spain in 1657, a woman and her young daughter showed up and the daughter began to beg the Abbot Millán de Mirando to celebrate three Masses in memory of her deceased father, whole-heartedly convinced that with these Masses the soul of her father would be freed from the pains of purgatory. The good abbot, moved to tears by the girl, began to celebrate the first Mass of suffering the next day and the girl, who was present with her mother, confirmed seeing her father kneeling, surrounded by frightening flames, at the step of the main altar during the consecration.

During the second Mass, the girl confirmed having seen her father dressed in a vibrantly colored suit standing next to the deacon. At the third Mass, the father appeared to his daughter dressed in a snow-white suit. As soon as the Mass ended the girl exclaimed, "There is my father going away and rising into the sky!" The girl then thanked the community of monks on behalf of her father as he had asked her to do. The Most Reverend general of the Benedictine order in Spain, the Bishop of Astorga and numerous citizens of the town were present.

The Eucharistic miracle of Montserrat brings us to reflect on the reality of purgatory and reminds us that every Mass has an infinite value because it makes the unique sacrifice of Christ suffering on Calvary present in our minds.

The Saints & The Eucharist

The Mass is the spiritual food that sustains me - without which I could not get through one single day or hour of my life.
