31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Pharisees were harsh toward their people but the Apostle Paul was “gentle as a nursing mother” among his people, sharing with them “not only the Gospel of God, but our very selves as well.” That gentleness is the living sign that we all have “the one Father.”

Though shepherds, our priests also belong to Jesus’ flock. Together with them we are children of one Father in heaven. Additionally, no priest can forgive his own sin. He too needs confession and absolution.

-Magnificat

God Our Father

There is only one Teacher and Doctor who is Christ. And there is only one Father, who is in heaven. All wisdom springs from Christ.

He is the Teacher who saves, sanctifies and guides, who lives, who speaks, rouses, moves, redresses, judges, forgives, and goes with us day by day on the path of history, the Teacher who comes and will come in glory. ~Pope John Paul II

The teaching of the Church is the teaching of Christ. Her teachers are to be measured according to the standard of the Lord. -In Conversation with God

The Eucharistic Miracle of Saint Clare of Assisi

In the Eucharistic miracle of Saint Clare of Assisi, Italy in 1240 she succeeded, with the Blessed Sacrament, in turning away Saracen troops in the pay of Emperor Frederick II of Sweden.

During an enemy attack against Assisi, city beloved of the Lord, and while the army was approaching the gates, the fierce Saracens invaded San Damiano.

Saint Clare, with a fearless heart, commanded the sisters to lead her, sick as she was, to the enemy, preceded by a silver and ivory case in which the Body of the Saint of saints was kept with great devotion. She prostrated herself before the Lord, and asked for His protection. Upon seeing the courage of the sisters, the Saracens took flight and fled back over the walls.

The Saints & The Eucharist

If we meditated on the most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist, we would not only hear his heartbeats, we would hear our hearts beating in union with his.

~ Servant of God Catherine Doherty

Year of the Eucharist Revival

A man who fails to love the Mass fails to love Christ. We must make an effort to live the Mass with calm and serenity, with devotion and affection. Those who love acquire a finesse, a sensitivity of soul that makes them notice details that are important because they express the love of a passionate heart. This is how we should attend Holy Mass. And it is why I have always suspected that those who want the Mass to be over quickly show, with this insensitive attitude, that they have not yet realized what the sacrifice of the altar means.

~St. Josemaria Escrivá

“WANTING MASS TO BE OVER QUICKLY”

A LITTLE BOY WAS LISTENING TO A LONG AND EXCESSIVELY BORING SERMON IN CHURCH. SUDDENLY THE RED SANCTUARY LAMP CAUGHT HIS EYE. TUGGING HIS FATHER’S SLEEVE, HE SAID, “DADDY, WHEN THE LIGHT TURNS GREEN CAN WE GO?”
