32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

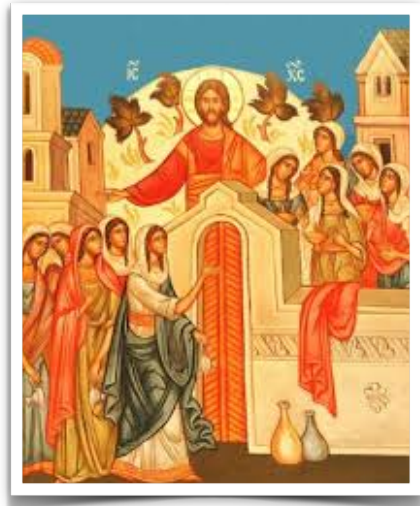

We know the parable of the five wise and the five foolish virgins.

Why don't the five wise virgins share their oil? Because it represents our love for Christ. We cannot substitute someone else's personal union with Jesus for our own

If only the foolish virgins had remained and confessed, "Lord, Lord, we have been foolish. But we know that you yourself can be our light! Have mercy on us!"

-Magnificat

Year of the Eucharist Revival

"Go to Church and give my love to the Hidden Jesus." ~St. Francisco Marto, a 20th century saint

This saint was one of three witnesses of the three apparitions of the Angel of Peace at Fatima. Even though gravely ill with influenza, he insisted on walking to church to make Eucharistic devotion. Pope Francis canonized him and Jacinta on May 13, 2017.

The Eucharistic Miracle of Santarém

In the Eucharistic miracle of Santarém, Portugal in 1247 a young woman overcome with jealousy for her husband, consulted a sorceress who told her to go to the church and steal a consecrated Host to use for a love potion. The woman stole the Host and hid the Holy Eucharist in a linen cloth that immediately became stained with Blood. Frightened by this, she ran home and opened the kerchief to see what had happened. To her amazement, she saw that the Blood was gushing from the Host. The confused woman stored the Particle in a drawer in her bedroom. That night the drawer began to emit brilliant rays of light which illuminated the room as if it were daytime. The husband was also aware of the strange phenomenon and questioned his wife, who was obligated to tell him everything.

The next day, the couple informed the pastor, who went to the home to remove the Host and return the Blessed Sacrament to the Church of St. Stephen. The Host bled for three consecutive days, and was then placed in a beautiful reliquary made of beeswax. In 1340 another miracle occurred. When the priest opened the tabernacle, he found the beeswax vase broken into many pieces: in its place was a crystal vase containing the Blood mixed with the wax. The Sacred Host is now preserved in an 18th century Eucharistic throne above the main altar. The Church of St. Stephen is now known as the Shrine of the Holy Miracle.

Getting Ready for Advent

I read a story a while ago about a mother who was frustrated by all the fighting and teasing that her children were doing. It was Christmas break and Mom was busy trying to get ready for the "big day". In an attempt to refocus her children, she asked them to play a game: to do nice deeds for each other rather than fighting. Each time they did a good deed, they could pick a piece of straw to place in the empty manger. It was fun! The fighting grew less and less as Christmas drew near.

VETERANS' DAY

A smart young woman said that when she marries she is going to marry a career soldier.

"Why's that?" asked a friend.

"Because they can sew, cook, make the bed, are in good shape, and are used to taking orders," the hopeful young woman replied.

~Help, I've Fallen & Need A Good Laugh!

Good Morning:
This is God.
I will be handling all your problems today.
I will not need your help so
HAVE A GREAT DAY!
