The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

“Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth:

the Blessed Sacrament.... There you will find romance, glory, honor, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves on earth.”

J. R. R. Tolkien as quoted in the Magnificat

Year of the Eucharist

We want food to delight, and we want it to nourish not one or the other.... Which, interestingly enough is what we find in the Eucharist. The Eucharist – the bread of angels – belongs to the sacramental world, which brings heaven down to earth...

The spiritual life begun and sustained by the sacraments parallels natural life:...reborn at Baptism, healed through penance, and mature through confirmation. But what about food?

Christ appoints the sign of bread to communicate the reality of his Body, providing food that addresses our deepest hunger...Bread is almost universally beloved. Whether it's bottomless breadsticks or fresh-baked rolls, bread delivers the goods. It is simply wonderful, across times and places, cultures and peoples.

Father Gregory Pine, O.P. in Magnificat

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

During Eucharistic Adoration, the faithful pray to Jesus Christ, who is present in the Eucharist. The Eucharist, also referred to as the Blessed Sacrament, is typically kept in a tabernacle at your parish church.

While it is true that you can pray to God anywhere and that He is always within you, it is especially powerful to adore Jesus in the Eucharist. In the presence of the Eucharist, we pray to the power and sacrifice that it represents — the body of Jesus, who gave His life so that we may live.

It is His body, blood, soul and divinity that is really, truly, and substantially present in the Eucharist.

We adore and receive the Eucharist in communion at Mass, which is the most beautiful act of worship that we have as Catholics. We have Jesus truly present in all of the tabernacles around the world. We can continue to adore Him in the Eucharist after Mass in a quiet time of prayer and contemplation on Who we have just received. Being in the presence of the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ gives spiritual strength and nourishment in a uniquely powerful way.

How Do You Adore the Eucharist?

There are many ways to approach prayer in the presence of the Eucharist. You might:

- have a personal conversation with the Lord
- pray the rosary
- read scripture
- or a read good spiritual book.

Ask God Our Father, Jesus or the Holy Spirit to teach you how to pray, and then pray in the way you feel drawn to, whether it's with one of the guides or whatever works best. Speak to God about everything that is on your heart and devote time to listening.

Make time to just sit in God's presence and listen. Ask God to speak to your mind and heart and give you all the graces and guidance you need. Then dedicate a certain amount of time to sit with Him, trying to ignore any distracting thoughts that might be on your mind, and listen. The graces from adoration might not be noticed until later that day, week or month.

The Saints & Adoration

United with the angels and saints of the heavenly Church, let us adore the most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. Prostrate, we adore this great mystery that contains God's new and definitive covenant with humankind in Christ.

-Pope John Paul II

As a man must be born before he can begin to lead his physical life, so he must be born to lead a Divine Life. That birth occurs in the Sacrament of Baptism. To survive, he must be nourished by Divine Life; that is done in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

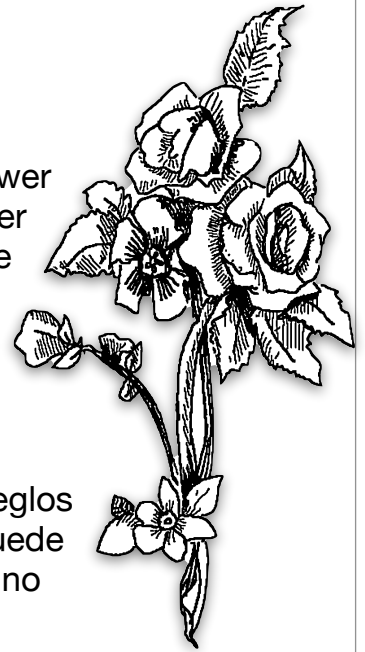

- Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen
