The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The sign of the cross is meant to express our faith in the mysteries of the Blessed Trinity—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—and of the crucifixion of the sweet Word incarnate: it is the briefest act of adoration and faith in these two great mysteries and also in that of the indwelling Trinity.

Father Bonaventure Perquin, O.P - Magnificat

The Mystery of the Holy Trinity

The mystery of the Trinity is the starting point of all revealed truth, the fountain from which proceeds supernatural life, and the goal whither we are headed: we are children of the Father, brothers and co-heirs with the Son, and continually sanctified by the Holy Spirit to make us ever more and more resemble Christ; accordingly, we deepen in the understanding of our divine filiation and become living temples of the Blessed Trinity.

And there, in the inner recesses of the soul, we learn to be intimate with God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

YEAR OF THE PARISH EUCHARIST REVIVAL

The U. S. Bishops have call for a renewal of our devotion to Christ in the Eucharist by devoting the next year to the Eucharist.

“Eucharist” means “thanksgiving” which means that a spirit of gratitude is meant to be at the center of our lives. Gratitude dispels all negative thoughts and emotions, for it is impossible to be bitter, cynical or angry and grateful simultaneously.

Devotion cannot be just a matter of feelings, but must be accompanied by understanding. As St. Thomas Aquinas said, “You cannot love what you do not know.”

A spirit of thanksgiving is meant to permeate every aspect of our lives, knowing that God is present in every situation, even negative ones, for as our Lord said, “I am with you always.” (Matt 20-8:20)

Jim Cavanagh brings us these reflections to help us more fully understand and appreciate the wonderful gift that the Eucharist is.

Diocesan Eucharist Revival Committee Goals

The theme: Real Presence, Real Life

The three revival pillars: Encounter, Hospitality, Charity

The hope is that each parish will take advantage of this opportunity:

- to lead people to an authentic encounter with Christ in the Eucharist
- to welcome them to a deeper understanding and belief in Holy Communion
- to challenge them to become what they receive by going out on mission as the Body of Christ.

The Saints & The Trinity

God – the Father, Son and Holy Spirit – dwells in our soul in grace not only with a presence of immensity, as He is to be found in everything, but in a special way through sanctifying grace.

- St. Thomas Aquinas

FATHER'S DAY ALTAR FLOWERS

Honor your father on Father's Day by presenting beautiful altar flower arrangements. A suggestion donation of $10 may be given to Ginger McGarr or in the office. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ginger McGarr. Deadline June 14.

FLORES PARA EL ALTAR DEL DÍA DEL PADRE

Honre a su padre en el Día del Padre, presentando hermosos arreglos florales para el altar. Una sugerencia de $10 de donación se puede entregar a Ginger McGarr o en la oficina. Si tiene alguna pregunta, no dude en ponerse en contacto con Ginger.
