Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

There is a legend about St. Augustine, the great theologian. He was very preoccupied with the Most Holy Trinity, and he wanted to thoroughly understand this doctrine so he could explain it logically in his writings and to his people. One day, while walking along the seashore in deep thought, he came upon a little child on the beach. The child had dug a hole in the sand, and was running to the sea with a little cup, filling her cup with sea water, running back, and emptying it into the hole. Back and forth she went, filling her cup and pouring the sea water into the hole. Augustine was amused and he finally approached her and said, "Little child, what are you doing?"

She replied, "I'm trying to empty the sea into this hole."

Augustine smiled and said, "How do you think you could empty this immense ocean into that small hole with your tiny cup?"

She answered back, "And how do YOU suppose that with your small head you can comprehend the immensity of God?" Whereupon she vanished from sight.

The point of this story is that the mystery of the Holy Trinity is far too complex to be explained. Instead of concentrating on the "how", let us simply celebrate the "why."

ACCEPTING THE BISHOP'S CHALLENGE

Remember the Corporal Work of Mercy - Feed the Hungry - bring an item for the local food bank.

A Spiritual Work of Mercy is "Praying for the living and the dead". As part of the Bishop's Challenge this week, a suggestion for this "mercy": request a mass intention for a friend or family member who has passed away, keep a personal book of prayer intentions, writing down the names of those who you are keeping in your prayers, or ask a friend or family member if there is anything about which you can pray for them.

Please pray for Hiraldo Rivera, single dad of two boys, who unexpectedly has 30 days to find a new home and is struggling financially.
