Third Sunday of Easter

Today's Gospel is the Fifth Station of the Via Lucis.

When the disciples invite Jesus to stay, they seek to prolong the consolation they feel while speaking with him. But in the breaking of the bread, they receive a much greater, divine consolation "it is he, Jesus!" What an overwhelming joy! They suddenly have a sense of stability and home they thought they had lost. But no sooner is Jesus recognized than his visible presence is gone. The flame he has left burning in their hearts remains as does his presence in the Eucharistic bread he has broken with them.

The Eucharist is a great gift.

-Sister Maria Frassati Jakupcak, O.P.

Eucharistic Prayer

Dear God, open my eyes to all the ways you are at work in my life, especially through the gift of the Eucharist, so that I may set my heart on heaven, my true home.

Eucharistic Miracle of Ludbreg

In the Eucharistic Miracle of Ludbreg, Croatia in 1411 a priest doubted whether the Body and Blood of Christ were really present in the Eucharistic species. Immediately after being consecrated, the wine turned into Blood. Many people testified that they had received marvelous cures while praying in the relic's presence.

Today the precious relic of the miraculous Blood still draws thousands of the faithful.
